THREE MISSIONS

Today we begin with one of the "servant songs" from the book of Isaiah, a song prophetic of Jesus' ministry of service. Isaiah's mission is not only to bring back the children of Jacob to gather in Israel; it is also to be "a light to the nations" (Isaiah 49:6). Jesus Christ, as servant, will be the fulfillment of the ancient prophecy and the basis of the new. » This Sunday we begin a series of readings from Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Here Paul is identified by his mission: he is an apostle of Jesus Christ. The church at Corinth to whom he addresses this letter is also identified: it is part of the universal church of God. The Corinthians are called to holiness, as are all Christians. Though the feast of the Baptism of the Lord was celebrated last Monday, today's Gospel also alludes to the importance of that event, emphasizing that Jesus "outtranks" John: his baptism in the Spirit will eradicate sin. Jesus accepts John's baptism, even though it is he himself who is the Lamb of God.

GOOD FOOD, FUN & FELLOWSHIP!

The gospel tells us that the magi found Christ

20 + C + M + B + 23

"on entering the house." The door to your home is a holy threshold. You can bless those who come in and go out by inscribing above the door in chalk the first two numbers of the year + C + M + B + the last two numbers of the year. Tradition tells us that the letters stand for the names of the magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. It may also mean "Christus mansionem benedicat" or "May Christ bless this dwelling." It is appropriate to bless your door in January —janua means "door" and the first month is the d5r to the new year.

Fr. Joseph invites all to get their house blessed. Takes fifteen minutes, walking from room to room, sprinkling each with holy water, reciting prayer. Sign-up sheet in back of church. Parish Office will call, confirm available dates and times.
Bless this house and all who enter

2023 Resolutions

Are there qualities that would make me a better Christian? Actually, when you were baptized, made your First Communion, or got Confirmed, the Holy Spirit conferred gifts to help you grow in strength and holiness. Recognizing these gifts and nurturing them will certainly make you a better Christian. Wisdom: This gift helps us stay focused on God's will and his plan for us. Understanding: Lets us grasp truths. It means seeing with the heart and the mind. Counsel: Also called "right judgment," counsel enables us to weigh alternatives to make the right choice. Fortitude: The ability to remain firm against pressure. (Also called courage.) Knowledge: A person with knowledge sees more than one dimension of an issue to determine the right path. Piety: Helps us think of ourselves as children of God and be eager to serve him. Fear of the Lord: The wonder and awe God inspires encourages us to respect him and all his creations. The more you use these gifts, the more you will grow in faith and holiness.

Sunday of the Word of God

In 2019, Pope Francis established the Sunday of the Word of God to be celebrated each year on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. As the Holy Father stated in his apostolic letter instituting the observance, "Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world" (Aperuit illis, no. 2).

To celebrate this observance, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, through a grant from the American Bible Society, will offer a Sunday Seminar Series of five videos about Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church. These videos, offered in English and Spanish, will be offered by some of the finest biblical scholars in the United States and will be accompanied by discussion/reflection questions and suggestions for further reading.

The videos will be made available on the Sunday of the Word of God, January 22, 2023 at: <https://catholic.bible/sunday-of-the-word-of-god/>
