"Dear parents,

I ask you to help your children to grow in faith...Please, go with your children to Church and take part in the Sunday Eucharistic celebration! You will see that this is not time lost; rather, it is the very thing that can keep your family truly united and centered. Sunday becomes more beautiful, the whole week becomes more beautiful, when you go to Sunday mass together."

—Pope Benedict XVI

SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes, "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom. Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

May 7, 1970 - January 9, 2023

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

Tuesday, January 24. Saint Francis de Sales: bishop of Geneva; sought to bring many back to the Church through his personal life and writings; co-founder with St. Jane Frances de Chantal of the visitation order; patron of writers, journalists and the deaf.

"Nothing is so strong as gentleness. Nothing is so gentle as real strength."

"I don't understand it myself. I was one way and now I'm completely different. And the thing that happened in between—was Him. So yes, I will know Him for the rest of my life."

Our Lady of Peace Parish Infant of Prague Novena

Begins January 30 at 7:00 pm
9-consecutive Mondays
guest homilists,
special intentions

"The More You Honor Me, The More I will Bless You"
THANK YOU to Renee (coordinator) our greeters, readers and servers (members of our K of C) and organist (Marilynn) for helping with the novena. If you would like to make some cookies for the reception (March 27), be sure to sign up with Erma and Mary Jo. Special THANK YOUs to our Fr. Joseph and guest homilists for the novena. See next week for a complete list.

The gospel tells us that the magi

20 + C + M + B + 23

found Christ "on entering the house." The door to your home is a holy threshold. You can bless those who come in and go out by inscribing above the door in chalk the first two numbers of the year + C + M + B + the last two numbers of the year. Tradition tells us that the letters stand for the names of the magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. It may also mean "Christus mansionem benedicat" or "May Christ bless this dwelling." It is appropriate to bless your door in January —janua means "door" and the first month is the door to the new year.

Fr. Joseph invites all to get their house blessed. Takes fifteen minutes, walking from room to room, sprinkling each with holy water, reciting prayer. Sign-up sheet in back of church. Parish Office will call, confirm available dates and times.

Sign-up sheet in back of church.

Weekday Mass is canceled when there is a delay or a cancellation for Marshall County or Ohio County Schools. Be safe. Stay home. Stay warm. Call 304-231-4053.

Wednesday, January 25. The Conversion of Saint Paul: Paul is converted and becomes the apostle sent to proclaim to all the nations the saving gospel.

Thursday, January 26. Saint Timothy and Saint Titus: Timothy is reminded of the Spirit given to him and Titus of the mission entrusted to him to proclaim the good news; companions of St. Paul and overseers of the churches of Ephesus and Crete; recipients of the so-called pastoral epistles. “A good life with contentment is itself a great wealth. For we brought nothing with us into this world, and we can take nothing out of it. So if we have enough of what we need, let us be content with that.” —Saint Timothy

Friday, January 27. Saint Angela Merici: orphaned at ten; foundress of the Ursulines, the first teaching Order especially for poor young girls; sought re-evangelization of families through the education of future wives and mothers. “Strive to be faithful to that which God has called you.”

The Legacy Society is made up of individuals/families that have been blessed and wish to share those blessings when they finalize their will and plan their estate. A mass will be said once a month for those generous individuals/families, in honor of the Legacy Society and your family name will be memorialized on the Legacy Society Tree which is found on the wall in the vestibule of church, making a lasting testament for generations to come.
