Monday, August 11. Saint Clare: disciple of St. Francis; founded the Poor Clares; whose first convent at Assisi she directed as abbess for forty-two years; led a austere life, rich in practice of charity and loving care. "We become what we love and we love shapes what we become."

Tuesday, August 12. Saint Jane Frances de Chantal: wife of Baron de Chantal and mother of six children; as a widow with St. Francis de Sales, found the Visitation nuns; established some eighty-five monasteries before her death. "Follow your own way of speaking to our Lord, sincerely, lovingly, confidently and simply, as your heart dictates."

The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Declared a dogma of our faith in 1950 by the Pope Pius XII, Assumption celebrated Mary being taken up into Heaven body and soul at end of her life. Here's a simple breakdown. Assumption means Mary was taken up into heaven. "Solemnity" is the highest type of feast in the Church, showing its great importance. It celebrates Mary's closeness to God and her special role in salvation. Vigil Mass: Thursday, August 14 at 6:00pm (no 8:00am Mass) Friday, August 15 at 8:00am ** this is a holy day of obligation

A Note from Fr. George

INTERIOR SILENCE

An excellent method of preserving interior silence is to keep exterior silence... Even in the world, each one of us can make his own solitude, a boundary beyond which nothing can force its way unperceived. It is not noise in itself that is the difficulty, but noise that is pointless; it is not every conversation, but useless conversations; not all kinds of occupation, but aimless occupations. In point of fact, everything that does not serve some good purpose is harmful. It is foolish, nay, more, it is a betrayal to devote to a useless objective powers that can be given to what is essential. There are two ways of separating ourselves from almighty God, quite different from one another but both disastrous, although for different reasons: mortal sin and voluntary distractions-mortal sin, which objectively breaks off our union with God, and voluntary distractions, which subjectively interrupt or hinder our union from being as close as it ought to be. We should speak only when it is preferable not to keep silence. The Gospel does not say merely that we shall have to give an account of every evil word, but of every idle thought. ~ St. Alphonsus Liguori

LITURGICAL COLORS ~ EDDIE O'NEILL

It starts with purple and ends with green, and there is a white and red in between. What do the different colors used by the priest signify? As outlined by the Church, different colors represent different liturgical seasons. Since around the sixth century, the primary liturgical colors have been green, white, purple, red and black.

GREEN SIGNIFIES ORDINARY TIME IN THE CHURCH. It must be noted that the shades of green can vary. For instance, the green of spring is a different shade than that of November as the Church year ends.

PURPLE IS WORN DURING ADVENT AND LENT, REPRESENTING THE PENITENTIAL SENSE OF THOSE SEASONS. Similar to purple is the color rose, which is worn just two Sundays throughout the year. First is the Third Sunday of Advent, otherwise known as Gaudete Sunday. During Lent it is worn during the Fourth Sunday, otherwise known as Laetare Sunday.

WHITE DENOTES TIMES OF GREAT CELEBRATION AS SEEN IN THE CHRISTMAS AND EASTER SEASONS. White vestments are also worn at baptisms, weddings, ordinations and feast days of the Lord, the Blessed Mother and saints who are not martyrs.

RED IMPLIES THE BLOOD OF CHRIST, THE HOLY SPIRIT AND THE MARTYRS. It is put on by the priest on Pentecost and for confirmations.

BLACK, RARELY SEEN, CAN BE WORN DURING THE OFFICE OF THE DEAD. It may also be worn on Good Friday.

FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and Hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me." We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament.

We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

Why Parish School of Religion ?

The Parish School of Religion (PSR) serves school-age children primarily for several important reasons:

Religious Education: PSR provides formal education in religious teachings, doctrines, and traditions tailored to the developmental stages of school-age children. It aims to deepen their understanding of faith and spirituality.

Faith Formation: PSR helps children to develop a personal relationship with God and understand the values and principles of their religious tradition. It lays the foundation for a lifelong journey of faith.

Sacramental Preparation: Many PSR programs prepare children for important sacraments such as First Holy Communion and Confirmation, guiding them through these milestones in their faith journey.

Community and Fellowship: PSR creates a supportive community environment where children can build friendships with peers who share their faith and values. It fosters a sense of belonging within the larger parish community.

Moral and Ethical Development: PSR teaches moral principles and ethical values based on religious teachings, helping children to develop a strong sense of right and wrong rooted in their faith.

Service and Outreach: PSR often incorporates service projects and outreach activities, teaching children the importance of compassion, kindness, and serving others in need, reflecting the teachings of their faith.

Family Involvement: PSR encourages family involvement in children's religious education, fostering collaboration between parents and educators to support the child's spiritual growth. PSR for school-age children provides a structured environment where they can learn about their faith, develop spiritually and morally, build community connections, and prepare for important religious milestones in a supportive and nurturing setting.

PSR PACKETS WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE BACK OF CHURCH SOON. WATCH FOR MORE DETAILS.
