

He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and have no fear."

WELCOME BACK!

To Wheeling Mary and Byrd!

What are the Catholic observances during Lent?

1) Holy Mass: Making more frequent participation in the Holy Mass during the week is an excellent Lenten observance because the Eucharistic celebration is the most sublime of Christian prayers.

2) Lectio Divina: It is the practice of slow, prayerful, meditative reading of the selected passages of the Sacred Scripture. It is a major part of our Lenten prayer life which enables us to listen to God talking to us. According to Pope Benedict XV it is “the diligent reading of Sacred Scripture accompanied by prayer brings about that intimate dialogue in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to him with trusting openness of heart” (cf. Dei Verbum, n. 25).

3) Fast and abstinence: Fasting is taking only one major meal per day and abstinence is avoiding meat. Lent is traditionally a time of fast and abstinence. Evidently, the obligations surrounding this have been much relaxed in the West in the past few decades, but the relaxing of the obligation does not mean there is not value in still opting to pursue these practices. Indeed, there is nothing (outside of health and age) to prevent one from taking up the practice of devotional fasts and abstinence.

4) Decide on Lenten sacrifices appropriate to the age of each child in the family, reminding them that our souls need this spiritual exercise to gain strength for living as Christians, just as our bodies need exercise to remain healthy. Our sacrifices are like a gift offered to God, and all real gifts “cost” the giver something.

5) Sacrament of reconciliation: Lent is a time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation so that we may put things right with God and others.

6) Acts of charity: Find out someone in need of our prayer, help, support or encouragement in our neighborhood and do with utmost sincerity what we can.

7) Participation in the “Way of the cross” devotion in the parish church to meditate on the suffering and death of Jesus for us sinners and to cultivate a holy fear of sin and its seriousness.

Lent’s Liturgical Somberness

During Lent, just as we fast and abstain from certain rich foods in a spirit of penance and self-discipline, the Church also “gives up” some of the more joyful elements of the Liturgy. We do not sing the Gloria—the hymn of praise first sung by the angels at the birth of our Savior (cf. Lk 2:14)—nor do we proclaim the Alleluia. Floral decorations are also greatly reduced in our churches during these forty days.

Why does the Church do this? Because these elements are exuberant expressions of joy. Lent is not primarily a joyful season; it is a penitential one. While St. Paul reminds us, “Rejoice in the Lord always” (Phil 4:4), Lent invites us into a more sober and reflective joy as we prepare for the Passion and Resurrection of Christ.

Removing the Gloria, the Alleluia, and the flowers does not make the Mass less meaningful. Rather, it gives the Liturgy a more austere and somber tone. This simplicity and restraint help purify the soul, focus the mind, and deepen our awareness of our need for God’s mercy.

The forty days of Lent mirror the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in prayer and fasting before beginning His public ministry (cf. Mt 4:1–11). The Church invites us to practice prayer, fasting, and almsgiving in imitation of Christ and for the good of our souls. This “spiritual spring training” strengthens us when embraced with sincerity and generosity.

Worship at Mass remains the heart of our Christian life. The Liturgy uses signs and symbols to teach, inspire, and draw us closer to Christ. There is, as we read in Ecclesiastes (3:4), “a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.” Lent is our sacred time of holy simplicity and repentance, so that when Easter arrives, our joy may be fuller and our hearts renewed.
