Ways to make Advent more meaningful

In Catholic families, Advent holds a special significance as a time of preparation and anticipation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. Here are some ways to make Advent more meaningful in Catholic families:

- 1. Advent wreath and candles: Light the Advent candles on the Advent wreath each week during family prayer time, focusing on the themes of hope, peace, joy, and love. Read corresponding scriptures and discuss their meanings.
- 2. Daily Scripture Readings: Incorporate daily scripture readings into your family routine. The Catholic Church provides a daily Advent scripture reading guide. Reflect on the readings together and discuss their relevance to your lives. using on the themes of hope, peace, joy, and love. Read corresponding scriptures and discuss their meanings.
- 3. Sacrament of Reconciliation: Attend the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) as a family during Advent. This sacrament provides an opportunity for spiritual reflection, repentance, and renewal.
- 4. Attend Mass Together: Attend Mass as a family, especially on Sundays and on feast days during Advent. Participate in the liturgy, and encourage children to understand the significance of each part of the Mass.
- 5. Jesse Tree Tradition: Create or use a Jesse Tree, a symbolic tree adorned with ornaments representing key biblical figures and events leading to the birth of Jesus. This visual aid helps tell the story of salvation history.
- 6. Novena Prayers: Consider praying an Advent novena as a family, such as the Saint Andrew Christmas Novena. This involves saying a special prayer 15 times a day from November 30th until Christmas.
- 7. Advent Calendar with Saints: Use an Advent calendar that features Catholic saints and their feast days. Each day, learn about the life and virtues of a different saint and discuss how their example can inspire your family.
- 8. Acts of Charity: Engage in acts of charity and service as a family. Volunteer at a local charity, organize a food drive, or participate in other initiatives that help those in need.
- 9. Special Marian Devotions: Honor the Blessed Virgin Mary during Advent with special devotions like the Angelus, the Rosary, or the Hail Mary. Consider incorporating Marian hymns into your family prayer time.
- 10. Christmas Pageant or Play: Organize a Christmas pageant or play that reenacts the Nativity story. Involve family members in different roles, and use this creative activity to deepen understanding of the Christmas narrative.
- 11. Advent Calendar with Religious Images: Choose an Advent calendar that features religious images or artwork depicting the Nativity story. Each day, discuss the image and its significance
- 12. Family Retreat or Reflection Day: Plan a family retreat or reflection day during Advent. Spend time in prayer, reflection, and discussion about the meaning of Christmas and how your family can live out its spiritual significance. By integrating these practices into your Advent traditions, you can create a spiritually rich and meaningful atmosphere in your Catholic family during this sacred season.

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE – DECEMBER 12

In 1531 a "Lady from Heaven" appeared to a poor Indian (St. Juan Diego), at Tepeyac, near Mexico City; she identified herself as the Mother of the True God, instructed him to have the bishop build a temple on the site and left an image of herself imprinted miraculously on his tilma, a poor quality cactus-cloth, which shows no sign of decay 488 years later and still defies all scientific explanations of its origin.

Yearly, an estimated 10 million visit her Basilica, making her Mexico City home the most popular Marian shrine in the world, and the most visited Catholic Church in the world next to St. Peter's in Rome. In 1999, Pope St. John Paul II, in his homily at the Basilica, declared December 12 as a Feast Day for the whole continent, naming Our Lady of Guadalupe Patroness of all Americas. During the same visit the Holy Father entrusted the cause of life to her loving protection, and placed under her motherly care the innocent lives of children, especially those who are in danger of not being born.

WONDERS

The normal response to a surprise is amazement, gratitude, and delight. By definition, we don't anticipate surprises. Their occurrence reminds us that we cannot always guess or shape the future. Granted, we do what we can do; we attend to the daily tasks, as we must. For grace is surely here in the mundane, and God is in the details. But God is in the happy surprises, too. Today's readings are filled with startling developments. We hear the clarion cry of one of those rare prophets announcing the coming of the Lord. Isaiah proclaims startling, surprising images of the nearly impossible reconciliation of opposites: calf and lion, leopard and young goat, child and serpent. Isaiah's vision sees all of these creatures living in harmony. This is Eden again; this is paradise. It is God's surprise and promise.

Spiritual Adoption
Month 2 Thank You from your Spiritually Adopted Baby:
 I am making great progress. I have already developed all of my external features and internal organs. My brain started functioning after six weeks. With an ultrasonic stethoscope, you can hear my heartbeat. Baby-teeth buds were present at 6 1/2 weeks and I can suck my thumb and swallow. After the eighth week, I will continue to grow but everything I need to survive after birth is already present. Thank you for your prayers, Mom is probably just finding out about me. Pray, pray, pray. Sign up with Mark: 304-312-0583
