Is there something you have done that you fear God won't forgive? Do you think God's justice is greater than his love? Jesus made it clear that God forgives sins if we repent, confess our sins, and turn to him in faith for his forgiveness. God is eager to forgive us if only we ask. You are forgiven.

JOURNEY OF TRANSFIGURATION “We used to be such good friends. How is it that you’ve moved so far away?” one man asked another. “Perhaps,” the other replied, “you have moved away. By standing still.” This exchange very well could have happened between Peter and Jesus, had Peter been allowed to erect tents to stay on the mount of the Transfiguration. He nearly succumbed to the temptation to stay in a place of wonder and light. But Jesus knew the hard truth: we are on a continual journey when we are walking the paths of God’s will. It is not good for us to stay in one place on our faith journey. Equally unhealthy is staying put in times of joy and wonder to avoid life’s difficulties, or to wallow in our trials and temptations and fail to be companions for our sisters and brothers who are also suffering—or celebrating! The pilgrim Church is required to do one thing on its Lenten journey: to walk continually with Christ as his Body born of water and the Spirit, seeking God’s will, helping the reign of God to be known on earth, being led to the end of our journey, transfigured for all time into the company of heaven.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD said to Abram: All the families of the earth shall find blessing in you (Genesis 12:1-4a)

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — God has called us to a holy life, not because of our works but according to grace (2 Timothy 1:8b-10).

Gospel — Atop a high mountain, Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James, and John. (Matthew 17:1-9).

Whoever cares for the poor lends to the LORD, who will pay back the sum in full. —Proverb 19:17

Five ways to have a more giving

A fruitful observance of Lent involves sharing what we have and who we are with others. It is a way to offer love the way Jesus asked and to grow closer to God as a result. Try some of these ideas to have a more giving Lent. PRAY. Give God at least 15 minutes each day to dedicated prayer. SERVE. Do something every day to serve others. GIVE. What you can spare will boost someone in need. WITNESS. Invite a non-Catholic or an inactive Catholic friend to attend Mass with you. REMEMBER. Send a card to someone who needs cheering.
