We begin our 9-day Novena Saturday, October 21. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend and protect those who are most vulnerable, from beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. We will reflect, pray a decade of the rosary and conclude with the St. John Paul II's prayer after each mass. Pray with us. Thank you to our Knights of Columbus for

POWER STRUGGLE

Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes.

Jesus' response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power—the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

"Give the Lord glory and honor." --Psalm 26

Monday, October 23. Saint John of Capistrano: reformer of the Franciscans and Poor Clares; preached devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus; animated resistance against the Turks at the battle of Belgrade; patron of military chaplains.
"Those who are called to the table of the Lord must glow with the brightness."

Tuesday, October 24. Saint Anthony Mary Claret: vigorous reforming bishop of Santiago, Cuba; founded Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary; fostered credit unions and apostolate of the press. "Christian perfection consists in three things: Christian perfection consists in three things; praying heroically, working heroically, and suffering heroically."

Gaining Plenary Indulgence for the Souls in Purgatory from November 1 to 8

An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. Indulgence is plenary November 1-8; on other days of the year it is partial. To acquire a plenary indulgence, it is necessary to perform the work to which the indulgence is attached and to fulfill the following three conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. It is further required that all attachment to sin, even venial sin, be absent. The three conditions may be fulfilled several days before or after the performance of the prescribed work; it is, however, fitting that Communion be received and the prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff be said on the same day the work is performed. A single sacramental confession suffices for gaining several plenary indulgences; but Communion must be received and prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff must be recited for the gaining of each plenary indulgence. The condition of praying for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff is fully satisfied by reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary; nevertheless, each one is free to recite any other prayer according to his piety and devotion. (Book The Enchiridion of Indulgences)
