JESUS AND THE LAW In today's continuation of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus addresses the relationship between the current interpretation of the law of Moses and his own. He insists that he has come to fulfill, not abolish the law. Jesus is explicit here. He repeats the phrase, "You have heard . . ." with the counterpoint, "But I say . . ." He will not settle for mere avoidance of outright murder or adultery or lying. He goes to the source of murder—hatred, resentment, spite. He insists on chaste living. He overrules the one-sided loopholes that allow men to divorce women, a law based on the view of women as property. He disallows all the means that people employ to play fast and loose with marriage. His words urge mutual fidelity. His listeners and followers are to honor the law wholly and not minimally.

The consequences of failure are clear and severe. The smallest are watching. They are those rendered powerless by age or ignorance or circumstance. These little ones depend on the word and action of the mature and knowledgeable, and they are not to be betrayed.

Heavenly Father, we ask you to help the children who are preparing for their first celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. May their humility, courage be pleasing to you and may they come to experience the joy of your loving and merciful countenance. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. Keep our children in you prayers.

Fall in L♥ve with God

From the moment God created you he has been deeply in love with you. He made you deliberately so he could love you. “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you” (1 Jeremiah 1:3). What about you? Are you in love with God? You have no secrets from God...and he loves you anyway. We all have some small shameful part of ourselves that we are too afraid to show even our closest family or friends. God sees all you are and loves you infinitely anyway. “I praise you, because I am wonderfully made...My very self you know” (Psalm 139:14). God thinks loving thoughts of you all the time. “How precious to me are thy thoughts, O God. How vast is the sum of them, they are more than the sand” (Psalm 139:17). Our bodies are holy because God put his precious life within us. “Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?” (1 Corinthians 3:16). Prayer is about falling in love with God. “I love the Lord, because he has heard my voice and my supplications. Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live” (Psalm 116:1-2).
