THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

Vocation Awareness Week — November 5-11. This is the time when the Church in the United States reflects on the main vocations to which our Lord may call us - single life, Holy Matrimony, Holy Orders and the religious life. May the Lord continue to watch over us as we strive to cultivate more vocations.

Dawn Lynn Vannest

God continues to bless me richly. Lately by God's grace we've done some great evangelization at the Mount. Earlier this month, some brother seminarians and I went to William and Mary University to pray with people, hand out rosaries, talk about the faith, and preach the gospel. Just today, a brother and I went out to protest in front of an abortion clinic as part of 40 Days for Life. Continue to pray for all of us seminarians. Lord willing, I will be back in Wheeling for Thanksgiving. Nathan
